WHAT AM I?

Your card is face-out. You may not read it. Nobody may tell you. Nobody may confirm.

YOUR TURN — PICK ONE

- Ask

Whisper to one player: “what am I?” The answer is private.
Refusing is legal — and a tell.
- Declare

Say your role out loud. The table reads your card.
- Swap

Spend a token, draw from the pile. New card goes face-out.

TOKEN — TWO USES

- 🔄 Swap your card
- 🔄 Clear your own MARK

DECLARING

- Correct → score its value · round ends
- Wrong → you are OUT. Name your source; that player becomes MARKED.
- MARKED → you cannot declare

OTHER

- No declaring in the first circuit
- Glimpse your own card → declare at once
- Eliminated → WITNESS: once per round, publicly announce any one card, true or lie

- Full circuit with no declaration → everyone declares at once
- First to 8 points wins the match

SESSION NOTES — THE ONLY LINE THAT MATTERS IS THE LAST ONE

Did anyone laugh, and at what?

ASSEMBLY — score every line with a dead pen before folding. Fold all creases to the same side first, then glue the two tabs inward. Panel order is TOP / FRONT / BACK / BASE, with the extra right-hand panel being the tuck lid that folds over the top. Interior is 62 × 92 × 22 mm — comfortably loose for 12 sleeved cards.

IF THE LID IS TOO FIDDLY, cut the whole net apart and use the four large panels as a single wrap-around band held shut with a paper clip. Same protection, no folding.

1 FOOL SECOND ASKING Once per round, on your turn, you may whisper a second question to a different player before taking any other action. 1 POINT · * ABILITY	2 GUARD IRON HELM You cannot be MARKED. If an eliminated player names you as their false source, you are completely unaffected. 2 POINTS · * ABILITY	3 WIDOW VEILED GLANCE Once per round on your turn, instead of asking, you may secretly peek at one card in the central face-down pile. 3 POINTS · * ABILITY
4 MONK SILENT VOW You may openly refuse to answer an ask. You announce your refusal as a solemn vow; it does not count as a guilty tell. 4 POINTS · * ABILITY	5 ORACLE PORTENT Once per round, you may ask a whisper question out of turn immediately after another player finishes declaring. 5 POINTS · * ABILITY	6 JUDGE INQUISITION On your turn, publicly accuse one player of lying. If they lied, they are MARKED. If they were truthful, you are OUT. 6 POINTS · * ABILITY
7 PRINCE ROYAL CLAIM If your declaration is correct, score DOUBLE (14 pts) and win the match instantly. If wrong, you are eliminated as normal. 7 POINTS · * ABILITY	8 QUEEN CORONATION You may declare out of turn at any moment. If correct, you score 8 pts and win immediately. If wrong, you are OUT. 8 POINTS · * ABILITY	 VARIANT RULES HOW TO PLAY * ABILITIES Swap exactly ONE base card for its * counterpart before dealing. Players can see the * on the holder's forehead. The holder may only invoke the ability if they deduce or gamble that they hold it! OPTIONAL ADVANCED PLAY

* VARIANT CARDS swap exactly ONE into the deck per game to add asymmetry without breaking simplicity.
